

Bible and Practical Theology symposium

Thursday 1st - Friday 2nd December 2022

Woodbrooke Quaker Study Centre, Birmingham

- ◆ Our theme is Authority recognized and challenged: Approaching the Bible as practical theologians. We will be reading three biblical texts together: 2 Kings 5:1-14; Matthew 8:5-13 // Luke 7:1-10; Matthew 15:21-28 // Mark 7:24-30
- ◆ Delegates are invited to spend some time reflecting on these texts before the symposium, as well as bringing texts they are working on currently.
- ◆ The symposium is a BIAPT and Bible Society venture. We invite practical theologians (practitioners, scholars, students) and biblical scholars to join us in this conversation.
- ◆ The symposium runs from 12 noon on Thursday to 2pm on Friday. We have space for 20 residential delegates.
- ◆ Bible Society are kindly subsidising the symposium. The subsidised rate for residential delegates is £140 and includes lunch on both days, evening meal, accommodation and other refreshments. A limited number of non-residential places are available.
- ◆ Woodbrooke can be accessed by car (parking on site) and by bus from Birmingham New Street.
- ◆ If you would like to attend, please email bible@biapt.org

Convenors: Helen Cameron, Andrew Rogers
